

NEW WORLD MAKATI HOTEL OFFERS A TASTE OF NORWAY

New World Makati Hotel whisks guests away on a northern gastronomic journey through a Norwegian food promotion from 2 to 20 May 2016. The culinary voyage sets sail with Executive Chef Robert Davis and Guest Chef Markus Dybwad at the helm, bringing Norway's freshest and finest seafood to local patrons during the three-week promotion.

Chef Markus Dybwad, a native of Norway, shares his expertise on the cornerstone of Norwegian cuisine – cold water seafood. With a track record from Michelin-starred restaurants around the globe and a passion for creating distinctive delicacies, Chef Markus stirs to life the lunch and dinner buffet of Café 1228 with spectacles of first-class Norwegian seafood specialties such as Salmon Gravlax, Herring in Tomato, Whole Steamed Brill with Light Soy and Chili, Atlantic Cod with Brown Butter and Dill, Grilled King Crab with Lemon and Parsley, and Haddock in Beer Batter. In addition to a scrumptious seafood smorgasbord, Café 1228 serves up an array of international cuisines and an assortment of meats balanced by cheeses and desserts for PHP1,999 per person for lunch on weekdays, PHP2,299 per person for lunch on weekends and PHP2,399 per person for dinner daily.

Guests with a liking for Oriental cuisine may take a different course and visit Jasmine restaurant. Hong Kong Master Chef Wong Kam On highlights an à la carte menu starring Norway's coastal gems prepared using authentic Chinese ingredients and preparations for lunch and dinner.

New World Makati Hotel offers A Taste of Norway in partnership with Snorre Food from 2 to 20 May 2016. Rates include service charge. For more information or reservations, please contact the hotel directly at +63 2 811 6888 or visit newworldhotels.com/manila.
