New World Makati Hotel Donates 200 Meals to the Frontliners of Ospital ng Makati

[Makati City, Philippines, 07 May 2020] — New World Makati Hotel's operations team led by General Manager Marcel van Mierlo and Hotel Manager Nantha Kumar turned over 200 lunch meals to the medical frontliners at Ospital ng Makati earlier today.

The freshly prepared meals were cooked, packed, sealed, and loaded by the hotel's skeletal operations team who have ensured the safety and sanitation of the property since the start of the quarantine period.

In a video message shared on the hotel's official social media accounts on the same day, Mr. Van Mierlo is seen together with the rest of the operations team wearing face masks and with their right hand on their chests, as a gesture of saluting the medical professionals who have tirelessly served the community amid the COVID-19 pandemic.

He delivered a heartfelt message to the frontliners: "On behalf of New World Makati Hotel, we will go today and serve some fantastic food to the frontliners here in Manila that are working so hard to help those in need and affected by the Corona virus infection. A big thank you from all of us."

Immediately following the Philippine government's announcement of a Luzon-wide community quarantine and succeeding enhanced community quarantine extensions, New World Makati Hotel has closed its doors and did not accept new bookings in its commitment to ensure the safety and sanitation standards of the property. The hotel anticipates reopening for its loyal patrons and new guests which will be communicated through its usual channels upon the administration's pronouncement.
