NEW WORLD SHENYANG HOTEL

New World Shenyang Hotel is located at Qingnian Street in the most exciting part of the city – the upscale entertainment, retail and dining district of Shenyang’s Golden Corridor. The hotel has direct access to the Shenyang K11 Art Mall, Shenyang New World EXPO and Wulihe metro station and is adjacent to the Hun River and Shenshui Bay Park. Shenyang Taoxian International Airport and train stations are all within a 20-minute drive. Guests can visit the Shenyang Imperial Palace and Qing Emperor Tombs UNESCO World Heritage Sites during the day and in the evening take in the hotel’s views of sparkling Shengjing Grand Theatre, Shenyang’s “giant diamond.”

New World Shenyang Hotel helps its guests find balance and focus – it is a place designed to for them to rest better and dream bigger, a place to grow, to strive, and shift their many worlds forward.

SLEEP

New World Shenyang features 374 luxurious rooms and suites with city, garden or river views. Designed is chic, stylish, while sustainability features have been integrated seamlessly into the details. For the ultimate space to stay, play and entertain, guests can reserve the Shenshui Mansion, a 950-square-meter (10,225-square-foot), two-level urban oasis with its own bar, dining area and entertainment lounge.

CONNECT

Located on Level 3, this innovative co-working space is comprised of a common area, open offices, private offices and conference rooms of varied sizes. Designed with a focus on sociability and flexibility, it is a multi-functional platform for professionals from startups, small and medium enterprises and multinational companies. It is open 24 hours with complimentary soft drinks and coffee at the bar.

DOWNTIME

Recharge fitness center, located on Level 6, is dedicated to physical well-being -- a space where guests can enjoy group exercise sessions or continue their own personal routines, with facilities including a swimming pool and dedicated workout zones for core, balance, cardio, spinning and boxing training.

GATHER

Ideally located for both corporate and private events at the city's geographic center. New World Shenyang Hotel can accommodate all sizes and types of gatherings, from intimate dinners to receptions for up to 1,100 guests. Seven event spaces are situated on Level 2, which faces the Hun River with a splendid view, as well as featuring large windows and sunlight-filled spaces. The on-site event team assists individual planners before, during, and after events, ensuring each occasion is individually tailored to meet the most demanding requirements.

RESTAURANTS & BAR

The Commons – The experience begins the moment guests step into The Commons. A magnetic hive of activity, it is a gathering point for local residents and global travelers to connect over drinks and enjoy light snacks any time of the day.

SO Shenyang – The centerpiece of this interactive restaurant is an expansive open show kitchen with beech oven and grill, Asian and Western kitchen, seafood counter, dessert and bakery counter, and beverage and juice bar. The atmosphere of So Shenyang is warm and relaxed, extending to its serene outdoor terrace. SO Shenyang is open for breakfast, lunch and dinner.

YU Mansion – This Chinese restaurant with interactive show kitchen features local Northern Chinese specialties, live fish and seafood authentically prepared. YU Mansion's six luxurious, free-standing guesthouses – HOUSE, are the most exclusive Chinese dining concept in the city, whose elegant, traditional style tells the story of the Three Romances of the Kingdom, the 14th-century historical tale considered one of the Four Great Classical Novels of China. Each is complete with separate entrance and spacious dining and lounge areas.

Zui Bar – Featuring two distinct floors, atmospheres and energy levels, the upper level is where one can simply chill out, relax and enjoy crafted cocktails, selected spirits and wines with friends, and the lower level is the place to party and enjoy live music or simply relax with a chilled glass of draft beer.
