New World Millennium Hong Kong Hotel invites guests to a beach-side party with a newly launched ‘Breezy Summer Afternoon Tea’ at The Lounge from 3 July. The hotel’s talented culinary team pampers guests with a delicious range of freshly prepared homemade sweets and savouries, many featuring iconic summer elements.

Guests can nestle on sofas by The Lounge’s two-story window to soak up the natural daylight and enjoy a tea-lightful moment with refreshing treats designed for summer palates. Exquisitely made savouries include Abalone Tartlet, Foie Gras Mousse with Raspberry Jelly and Cranberry Pearls, Supreme Chicken Roll with Seaweed and Beetroot Gel, Crab and Avocado Salad Tartlet, Mini Scallop Bun (available on weekend only) and more.

Inspired by the fun and vivid season, the playful desserts are not-to-be-missed this summer. From the Elderflower Apple Cider Jelly in a mini beer mug and the Violet Berries Cone that resembles a dropped ice cream cone, to adorably presented Watermelon Calamansi Mousse and Pineapple Coconut Yoghurt Mousse, guests are sure to be delighted by the creativity and imagination of the hotel's Pastry Chef Daniel Law and his team.

The afternoon tea set comes with five savouries, five desserts and one scone per person, with an extra three savouries on weekends and public holidays, served alongside a premium tea or coffee. Guests may upgrade their beverage with a showstopper summer mocktail, Silent Rose or Coco Beach, for just HKD78 per person.

Silent Rose

Coco Beach

Available from 2:30 to 5:30 p.m., the weekday afternoon tea set (Monday to Friday, excluding public holidays) is priced at HKD338 per person and HKD628 for two persons, while the weekend afternoon tea set (Saturday to Sunday and public holidays) is priced at HKD428 per person and HKD768 for two persons. All prices are subject to 10% service charge.

Guests are recommended to book the 'Breezy Afternoon Summer Tea' experience at least one day in advance. For reservation, please call +852 2313 4222 or book online at <https://bit.ly/44xpsT7>.
